Generally, we will share our experience and connections as long-term expats with you and give you hints and tips so that you can organise your new expat life with ease.

MAINTENANCE

Ongoing maintenance of the village is handled by a team of well-trained European and Thai technicians including specialists in the fields of IT, electrical work and plumbing and sanitation systems.

The residents of our Pattaya villas demand the highest standards and the entire team at Siam Royal View is dedicated to ensuring village infrastructure is maintained in superior state. The landscaping and communal areas are maintained by a team of gardeners and cleaners. This ensures that at all times the village green, recreational areas and all community facilities are kept in top condition. The well-trained village maintenance team is also available to villa owners to keep their homes in perfect condition on request. Everything from burnt-out light bulbs, swimming pool, garden to clogged drains can be handled by the Siam Royal View crew for reasonable fees, leaving you free to enjoy worry-free leisure time.

INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT

Residents that are away from their villa for extended periods or who purchased The Hill as an investment for rental returns can rely on Siam Royal View's maintenance team to look after their property.

Our team can ensure the property remains in prime condition by airing it out and performing regular maintenance checks to ensure that everything is functioning properly. We also run a rentals service to assist finding and manage tenants, collect rent revenues and keep the accounts up to date. Our team will identify both the challenges and opportunities facing your property and offer proactive advice and recommendations to enhance the investment yield. With you, we will set goals and objectives for portfolio performance appropriate to the specific issues and life cycle requirements of the properties within the portfolio and then we will closely monitor operations with a creative, disciplined and pragmatic approach.
